Franco Esteve's Album, "Mallorca 360 Season 1 Soundtrack" is an otherworldly New-Age Experience!

Cala Ratjada, Balears, Spain - July 22nd, 2018: A new, other-worldly, new-age music album called "Mallorca 360 Season 1 Soundtrack" by Franco Esteve, has just been released. This album, which is drawing large audiences through its previously released songs, Siurana Spell and The Wait, represents the music used and created for Mallorca 360's virtual reality videos throughout their first season.

Franco Esteve, a multi-disciplinary artist and composer, is known to create music with a film focused, story-driven approach that both penetrates the soul and touches the humanity of his listeners. His brand of music captivates his listeners and audiences, as it evokes universal emotions in them while taking them on the journey of the story. The "Mallorca 360 Season 1 Soundtrack" is a unique creation by this rare gem of a composer, who is carving a particular niche for himself, innovating within each genre.

Recently, a Huffington Post review had said the following about Franco Esteve's music: "(Franco) Esteve has composed a glistening tune that is simultaneously diaphanous and sensitive, yet emancipated and emotive." This is a genuine and unbiased attestation of this music icon's ingenuity in creating world-class music that has quickly driven praise and popularity beyond the genre.

Another Music Review Magazine, Jamsphere Magazine, had this to say about this innovative composer: "To say his music is cinematic is all too obvious and Esteve's ability to create simple and emotive musical narratives is a rare gift to be admired...Esteve's music has a universal appeal that will attract audiences of many cultures and musical tastes."

Here is what Franco Esteve says of his creative musical compositions: "For me, composing music is a process of exploration, which is why I'm so drawn to it. There are so many places to visit and explore and express. A lot of my music is composed as an expression of my short films, but Mallorca 360's locations, like soundtracks, act as a live entity within a story. Sometimes, the music just gets drawn from life itself."

The "Mallorca 360 Season 1 Soundtrack," is mainly a new-age-style album with some contemporary classical thrown in, that is both meditative and relaxing while simultaneously evoking some classic, romantic themes Franco Esteve created. Most of it was composed specifically for Mallorca 360's 360-degree, virtual reality videos of locations throughout Mallorca, Spain, where you can relax and contemplate their beauty, virtually standing in them. They transport you beyond the locations, and romantically lift you to a loving and relaxing space.

The music and sounds are meant to transport you not just to what you see in the videos, but beyond the videos themselves, so whether you're watching, or you close your eyes while listening to the music, you move beyond yourself and unto a higher plane of relaxation and love.
